itably follow such a policy. The issue must be met. There is no evading it. The fanatics of New England have forced it upon the country, and they hope, under the rod of party discipline, sided by military power, if necessary, to compel you to an endorsement of their disgusting doctrines. If you have a proper regard for your race, or government, if you are a free American citizen, you will repudiate the leadership of such heartless fanatics and brazen-faced demagogues, and vote with your white neighbors to perpetuate and strengthen a white man's Government.

RETURNED SOLDIERS

The La Crosse Democrat thus speaks of the treatment received, by the gallant men who have fought the hattles of the country, at the hands of their former special friends, the Abolitionists:

the Abolitionists:

It seems but yesterday that loyal ladies and gentlemen, if we may use the expression, were sending mittens, fiannel shirts, religious tracts, abolition newspapers and relection tickets to the "poor soldiers." The satisfacts and fiannel shirts were all right. The religious tracts were all right, and were warm hands for the soldiers to know at one very handy for the soldiers to have at oer-tain times. The abolition newspapers were all right, for they were loaded to the muz-sic with denunciations against Democrats, and their mission to incite mobs, personal violence and hate for all who differed inopinion with the editors thereof. The elecopinion with the editors thereot. The elec-tion tickets were all right, for they were lists of the names of leval cowards, who dared not go to war, but were wilking to stay at home, get in office, and assess taxes on the property of the soldiers in the field to raise bounty that their precious selves-might be safe. Of course this was all right, for it was sanctioned by the great and good Lincoln, and was the only means certain Lincoln, and was the only means certain poverty-stricken laborers in this wordly vineyard had to obtain a living, and dress their families in stylish raiment, or pay for beer, tangle-leg whiskey, or for the support of shiftless editors who would die, but for the charity bestowed, boggars.

It seems but yesterday all this was the order of the day. Men wrote letters to the dear soldiers and enclosed election tickets. Pretty girls sold kisses for five cents and embraces for a higher sum, all for the poor soldiers. Men and women cried albud, "Give, or be damned!" "Contribute or be

"THE BEDFORD HOMICIDE."

Under the above caption the Repository flast week contains a very lengthy editor rial article in relation to the recent lamenta-ble affair in Bedford. It would seem to those acquainted with the facts that the article could have been intended for no other purpose than to place the Messrs. Reed in a false position before the public, and to prejudice their case before the jury which is to try them. The representations of the connection of Mengel Reed with the rebel army and the expatriation of John P. Reed, Jr., to avoid the Draft, as contained in the article referred to, are so much at variance with the truth as scarcely to bear even a semblance to it. It is not however our pur pose at this time to correct the misrepre-sentations of the Repository in these particu-lars, as the truth will be fully developed before a court and jury in a very short period, but simply to make a few comments on the following extract. The Repository says:
"Whatever may be the determination of the law as to this fearful homicide, can any dispassionate and conscientious cit doubt where rests the moral responsibility for the murder of Mr. Crouse?" We confess we can see no room for doubt, as to where rests the "moral responsibility" for this unfortunate affair. To even a care-less observer of events, during the past four years, there can scarcely be a doubt about it. The spirit of lawlessness which impelled Jacob Crouse to pursue young Reed through the streets of Bedford with joers and insults is the same which the Republican Press and Republican leaders have been instilling into the minds of their followers ever since the commencement of the war. Under the teaching and example of these men, many were induced to think that to abuse, vilify and insult a fellow citizen of a different pelitical faith, was a meritorious act, and a strong evidence of patriotism and "loyalty." To the teachings of this same press was owing the spirit, so rife in the Northern States since 1861, which delighted in mobs. the destruction of property and life, and the incarceration of men guiltless of offence, in bastiles, to gratify the malignant hate of til driven to the wall, his life in imminent danger, he fired the fatal shot which termi nated the existence of Mr. Crouse. then rests the "morel responsibility" of this homicide? Surely, upon the men who give sentiment to the party from which poor Crouse drew his inspiration and learned

The property this Powder possesses in increasing the quantity of Milk in Cows, gives it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a Cow. By actual experiment it has proven that it will increase the quantity of Milk and Cream twenty per cent., and make the Butter firm and sweet. In fattening Cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide and makes them thrive much faster.
